Benjamin and Sarah (Tobey) Flint; descendant of Thomas Flint, who emigrated to America from Wales in 1642, and settled in Salem, Mass.; ed. in public schs., Thomaston, Me., and Brooklyn, N. Y.; grad. Poly. Inst., Brooklyn, 1868, being pres. of his class and of the alumni; m. 1883, E. Kate Simmons, of Troy, N. Y. Entered employ of W. R. Grace in 1869; organized 1871 firm of Gilchrist, Flint & Co., ship chandlers; in 1872, with W. R. and M. P. Grace, established firm of W. R. Grace & Co., and 1876 Grace Bros. & Co., of Callao, Peru. Appt'd Consul in N. Y. for the Republic of Chile, and in the absence of the chargé d'affaires attended to the business of the Chilean Legation; held this position until Chile declared war against Peru in 1879, when, owing to his firm being the financial agents of the Peruvian Gov't, he cabled his resignation to Chile. Visited Brazil, 1884, and arranged for the export, during succeeding years, of large quantities of rubber from the Amazon; upon his return was appt'd Consul of Nicaragua in N. Y.; entered firm of Flint & Co., 1885, with father and brother. Delegate of U. S. to Internat. Am. Conference in Washington, D. C., Winter of 1889-1890, and in that conference represented U. S. on the Com. on Banking and Com. on Customs Regulations; formulated a report for unifying the customs regulations of the Am. republics, and in that report, after consultation with Andrew Carnegie and the other U. S. delegates, recommended the org'n of the Bureau of Am. Republics, which was adopted by the Conference. Took a prominent part in securing recognition of the new Republic of Brazil by the Am. Gov't, Jan., 1890; acted for President Peixotto during the Mello-Da Gama Rebellion in Brazil, 1893, in the purchase of vesseis and munitions of war, and within 25 days had purchased, converted, armed and equipped a fleet of six vessels of over 10,000 tons displacement, capable of discharging 4,590 pounds of dynamite simultaneously, which was of immense value to Brazil in preventing the secession of the Northern provinces and probable restoration of the monarchy. Purchased the cruiser Esmeralda from Chile and delivered her to Japan during the Chinese-Japanese War (the only incident in history of the delivery of a war vessel to a belligerent); rendered valuable services to U. S. Gov't in purchase of vessels and munitions of war, both before and during the war with Spain; in several instances blocked the efforts of the Spaniards to purchase foreign war vessels and supplies, and in many ways aided the Gov't by services which were formally acknowledged by Secretary Long. Established in City of Manaos, 1,000 miles up the Amazon River, a modern trolley road, electric light system, waterworks and the asphalt block pavement. During Russo-Japanese War was pro-Russian, and at outset of the war purchased for the Russian Gov't all the available ordnance and projectiles in the U. S., and bought and shipped to Russia the submarine Protector, five other submarines and ten torpedo boats; had an audience with the Czar; received letters of credit of Rothschild Fréres of Paris for $30,000,000, and conducted important negotiations preventing the sale of the Argentine and Chilean war vessels to Japan and Turkey. During past 15 years has devoted himself largely to the consolidation of industrials, and has succeeded in establishing 39 consolidations, with an outstanding capitalization of over $346,000,000; he has become widely known as the Father of Trusts. Recreations: Hunting, fishing, yachting; formerly owned the sloop Gracie, a famous prize winner; was one of the owners of the successful Cup-defender Vigilant, and built the steam yacht Arrow, the fastest vessel in the world. GEORGE, WILLIAM REUBEN

Founder of the Junior Republic; b. West Dryden, N. Y., June 4, 1866; s. John Francis and Eleanor (Baker) George; ed. in common sch.; m. N. Y. City, Nov. 12, 1896, Esther Ide Brewster; children: Eleanor Miller, b. 1898, Esther Armington, b. 1904, Edith Van Etten, b. June 7, 1908. Went to N. Y. City in 1880; later became very much interested in work for boys and girls; in 1890 took a group of children to Freeville for the summer, and for five years thereafter different groups were taken each summer for an outing. In studying children, and the work being done for them, came to the conclusion the giving the children everything they needed, free, tended to increase pauperism among them. While thinking over a remedy for this conceived the idea of starting a junior republic, modeled after the U. S. Gov't, and in 1895 put his ideas into operation. The plan worked so well and created so much interest that it was at once incorporated and placed on a permanent basis. The summer feature was abandoned and a permanent inst'n established, which is widely known as the George Junior Republic; now devoting entire time to establishments of the Junior Republic System. Founder of the Junior Municipality, which extends a measure of self-gov't to all youth within a city between the ages of 16 and 21. Author: The Junior Republic, collaborator with Lyman Beecher Stowe in writing of Citizens Made and Remade. Independent in politics. Recreations: All kinds of athletics. Address: Freeville, N. Y.

MOHEGAN LAKE SCHOOL

MOHEGAN LAKE : WESTCHESTER COUNTY : NEW YORK

ESTABLISHED IN 1880 to prepare young men for college and for business life, Mohegan Lake School has won its high position by a persistent adherence to its ideals. It enjoys the approval of its patrons and the love of its students and its alumni.

CAREFUL SELECTION OF STUDENTS is a primary factor in the success of the school. No boy is received without satisfactory evidence that he is worthy of a place in a refined home.

SCHOLARSHIP is secured by the scholastic and pedagogic ability of the instructors, and also by their personal character and their sympathy with boy life. The aim is to develop manliness and maturity of thought and character by giving attention to the individual needs of the students.

THE SCHOOL has a military organization, to secure in the students a good physical development and an erect, soldierly carriage. Military work and routine promote habits, promptness, system and obedience.

THE LOCATION of the Mohegan is in the beautiful, healthful highland country of Westchester County, with picturesque and historic surroundings. Mohegan Lake is a beautiful sheet of water, nearly 500 feet above the Hudson River. The school is forty-five miles from New York City.

THE COURSES OF STUDY prepare boys for all colleges, universities and scientific schools, or for business life. There is a four-year Senior course and a three-year Junior course to prepare students for the Senior course.

THE HOME LIFE is cordial and refined. It is under Christian though unsectarian influences.

ATHLETICS receive intelligent application at this school. The lake gives opportunity for swimming, rowing and hockey, and a large athletic field is utilized for baseball, football, military drills, parades, etc. Outdoor sports and exercises in the pure air of the country, under safe and skilled supervision, are important features of the school life.

Mercantile Journal and sub-publications, 1863-1878; began printing following apothegm at the head of his several journals in 1865 as "The Science of Money Briefly Set Forth"; "In the interchangeability (at the option of the holder) of National Paper Money with Government bonds bearing a fixed rate of interest there is a subtile principle that will regulate the movements of Finance and Commerce as accurately as the motion of the steam engine is regulated by its 'governor.' Such Paper Money Tokens will be much nearer perfect measures of value than gold or silver ever have been or ever can be. The use of gold or other merchandise as money is a barbarism unworthy of the age.—Wallace P. Groom." Later added two notable apothegms in re the Currency as follows: "To be true money it must be interchangeable at holder's option with government bonds bearing equitable usury—i. e., interest. Such money will surely yield much greater benefits than have resulted from any humanly-devised instrumentality since the early dawn of the Christian Era.—Wallace P. Groom." "Grass will cease to grow and water cease to flow ere sound, honest, justice-promotlng money can be coined (i. e. fabricated) on any basis other than its interchangeability at holder's option with government bonds bearing equitable usury—i. e. interest.—Wallace P. Groom." Sec. Nat. Convs. (promoting improvement of Country's Legal Tender) Columbus, O., 1872, and Indianapolis, Ind., 1876; chm'n com. to notify nominees of these convs. Sec. N. Y. The Misses Allen School for Girls

WEST NEWTON MASSACHUSETTS

A Home School in one of the most delightful suburbs of Boston

This school aims to continue that emphasis upon character-building which was the distinctive feature of the school which was conducted for over half a century by the father and uncles of the Misses Allen.

Its aim is particularly to meet the requirements of the following classes of pupils:

1. Those who are preparing for college.
2. Those who, through interruption of study by ill-health, travel abroad, or loss of parents, require individual care and supervison.
3. Those who seek a general and cultured education.

TUITION, $750 PER YEAR

MISS FAULKNER'S House of Education

DEDHAM, MASS. FOR GIRLS 20 minutes from Boston

THIS school, which has a large day department, can accommodate twelve resident pupils. The training is such as is given to English girls of good birth and breeding, and Miss Faulkner's chief aim in the education of her resident pupils is to teach them the importance of a well rounded development and to give them a deep sense of a woman's responsibilities. They are trained to see the necessity for efficiency, unselfishness and poise; to understand what constitutes a successful home-maker and to have a right sense of values. Miss Faulkner prefers to receive pupils at as early an age as possible, and expects each one to fit herself for a definite career, preferably that of home-maker.

FEES: For girls under twelve years, $1200; for girls of twelve to fifteen, $1500 per year. No extras.

April 11, 1898; Edith Dora, b. Nov. 7, 1899. Devised a machine and process of sectioning woods for scientific purposes. With it sections are made (1) from 1|50 to 1|200 in. thick, on respectively transverse, radial and tangential planes, and used for purpose of illustrating the various species in a work entitled American Woods; (2)

from 1|400 to 1|600 in. thick, for mounting in stereopticon slide form for projection with the stereopticon, and (3) 1|1200 in. thick for mounts for study with the microscope. Author and publisher of: American Woods, illustrated by actual specimens, with copious text. Large 8vo. The Work, in a series of 15 vols., is designed to cover all of the important timber trees of the U. S and Canada; 12 vols. have been issued and others are in preparation, Handbook of the Trees of the Northern States and Canada; photo-descriptive. In this work the characteristic leaves, fruits and leafless branchlets and barks of each species are shown in carefully made photographic illustrations and the distributions are shown by individual maps. The characteristic wood structures of at least one species of each genus are indicated by a series of photomicrographs. The value and importance of the above work is attested by the fact that their author has been awarded, through the Franklin Inst. of Philadelphia, the sp'l Elliot Cresson gold medal on account of their production. Besides the above have been awarded grand prize or gold medal at Paris Exp'n, Columbian, Pan. American, Louisana Purchase and Alaska-Yukon Exp'ns. Republican. Mem. A. A. A. S.; Am. Located for practice of law in New Haven, Conn., in office of Judge Sheldon, but after a year moved to N. Y. City, opening an office in Evening Post Bld'g. A year later removed to 2 Wall St., and established a branch office in Brooklyn, carrying on business in both places; since then has been att'y for many corp'ns and stock companies; makes a specialty of corp'n and railroad law; also does an extensive business in real estate, and is connected with many large business concerns; dir. and counsel Union Bank of Brooklyn; pres. and dir. N. J. and Staten Island Junction R. R. Co.; has been actively engaged for some years in preparing gen. plans for the construction of a tunnel and post road under the Narrows, which will permit of the passage of railroad trains, automobiles, horses, carriages and foot passengers under the Narrows between the Boroughs of Brooklyn and Richmond, S. I.; stockholder in M. E. Moore Bronze and Plate Co., with offices in N. Y. City and factory in Kingston, N. Y.; stockholder in Medina Mf'g Co.; the John T. Hunter Co., Am. Spirometer Co.; counsel for the Bankers' Title Guarantee Co. Organized and is pres. of the N. J. and Staten Island Junction Terminal Co., incorporated for $10,000,000, which is organized to construct a tunnel from the terminus of all the railroads which now reach only the eastern shore of N. J., including the Baltimore & Ohio, Lackawanna, Erie, Jersey Central, Lehigh Valley, West Shore, Pa., and the Philadelphia & Reading, nine trunk lines in all, the traffic of which will be carried to Brooklyn through a large tunnel, which will be constructed on land, of steel, in sections. After the bottom of the bay is dredged out, making a ditch, the tunnel will be sunk and the sections bolted together at the bottom of the bay. The steel tunnel will be of two large tubes, enclosed in a large steel case and filled with concrete. Its construction will require 336,000,000 tons of steel, and it will have 310,000 cubic yards of displacement, 130,000 cubic yards of concrete; a weight per lineal foot of 513,000 lbs., and 8 lbs. per foot, allowed to overcome the buoyancy of the tunnel, which will be made like a steel boat with bulkheads in the end to allow it to be towed to its place in the bay, and then sunk by adding the concrete. The total cost will be $10,000,000, and the cost of the land for landing tunnel $3,000,000. Has been engaged for past three years in promoting and establishing the Ellis Adding Typewriter in Europe and elsewhere. This machine revolutionizes the present method of bookkeeping, accounting, etc., and will write, add, subtract, mutliply and figure discounts. The work of the machine is all visible, and it is being used by the greatest banks, trust companies and mercantile houses of the world; mf'g plant is located at Newark, N. J. Mem. Am. Springside School

Chestnut Hill
Philadelphia, Pa.

Principals, MRS. CHAPMAN and MISS JONES

LOCATED in one of the most beautiful suburbs of Philadelphia, 424 feet above sea level.

The school has a small resident department and a large day department. Resident pupils, therefore, have the advantage, in their home life, of individual attention from the teachers; and in their class work, of the stimulus afforded by competition. The school, which was founded in 1879, has always done thorough work in both its college preparatory and regular courses. The house was specially built for school purposes, and is well equipped, comfortable and sanitary. The school grounds afford ample facilities for outdoor sports.

Lakewood School for Girls

A SCHOOL in which girls can live near to nature, enjoy many healthful sports, study and recite—all in the open air, the year around.

A small school, where girls get abundant individual attention. During 1913 to 1914 we had one resident teacher for every two resident pupils.

Our patrons will gladly testify that we have "made good" with girls whom we have fitted for the positions they now occupy in some of the highest social circles in the country.

Send for a list of parents with whom you can talk about our school. Address

Choosing a School

In selecting a school for your daughter, you would like to know:

What is the MORAL tone of the school; what is its influence, its ideals, its traditions; does its whole aim, influence and teaching make for strong, high-minded character?

What is the SCHOLARSHIP standard; is it thorough, is it practical; does it fundamentally teach the pupil to think for herself?

THE BARNARD SCHOOL FOR GIRLS has been studying this question of school efficiency for eighteen years, and in its solution we have found the constant factor is the teacher.

Therefore we have chosen our teachers most carefully, not only as to scholarship and training, but as to character and refinement. We know our teachers intimately, not only in the school, but in their home life.

A school is judged by its results. Therefore we beg to refer you to the mothers, whose daughters are now, or have been, in the school; to the colleges which our girls have entered, and to our alumnae.

LESLIE, MRS. FRANK (BARONESS DE BAZUS)

Editor, publisher; b. New Orleans, 1851, of old French Huguenot family, descended from Philip Picot; ed. at home by her father, in French, Spanish, Italian, German and Latin; began writing for publication at age of thirteen, and subsequently married Frank Leslie, the publisher. In 1877 made transcontinental tour, from which grew her work, From Gotham to the Golden Gate; Itza, the Unexplored Regions of Central America; Rents in Our Clothes; Are we All Deceivers?, etc., besides translating from the French, Spanish and Italian, and magazine articles on travel and social topics, poems, etc. On Jan. 10, 1885, Mr. Leslie died, leaving entire establishment, $300,000 in debt, and sixteen publications in hands of an assignee. After seventeen different law suits, triumphed over all obstacles, straightened out affairs of the publications (among which was Frank Leslie's Illustrated Newspaper) and made great financial and literary success. About 1902 sold out all her interests, and the name Frank Leslie, which she had legally assumed in 1881 for business purposes, she now abandoned, resuming the family name of the Baroness de Bazus, a French title which was created in the time of Saint Louis, and which has belonged to her ancestors for many generations.
